

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

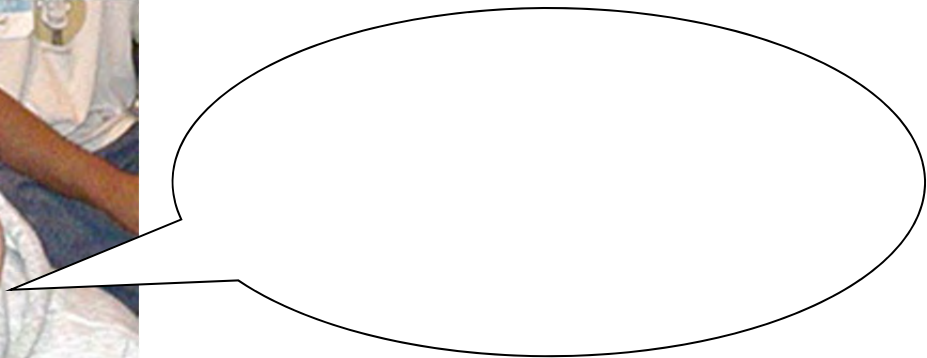

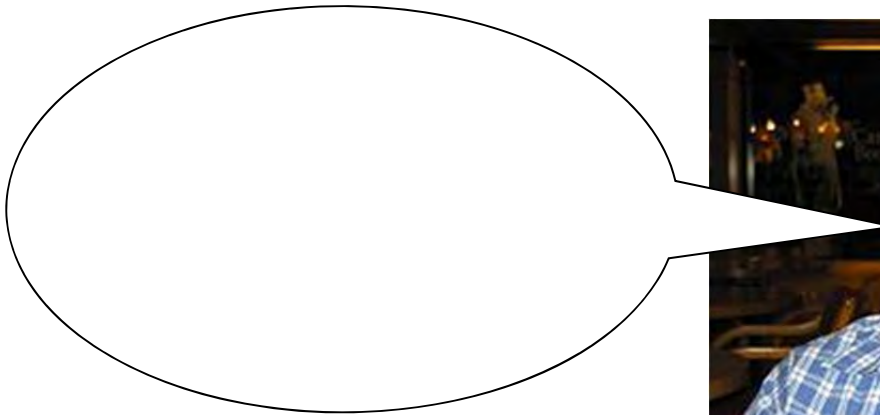

“Hello my name is Hamid. What’s yours?”

“I go to college but I also work in Burger King at the weekend. What about you? Do you go to work?”

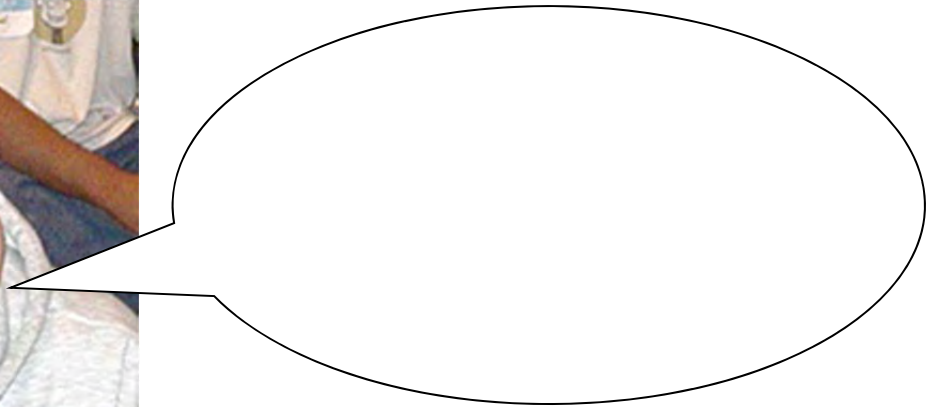

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

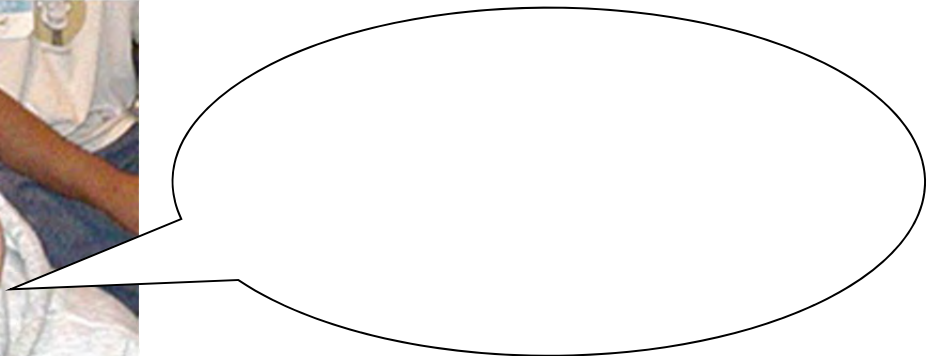

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

"I like to travel,
watch T.V. and walk my dog."

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

"He's called Mailu.
Do you have any animals?"

"No, my little sister is frightened of animals.
Do you have any
brothers or sisters?"

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

“Yes, I have a younger brother and sister. They are twins.”

“Maybe I’ll see you around college. Nice chatting to you.”

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

"I work in the Library
at Croydon College!
What are you learning
at colleae?"

"What's your dog called?"

"Thanks, it was nice chatting to you too."

"In my free time I play football and
learn sign language.
What about you?"

"I am learning to be a doctor."

"Hi, my name is Josh. Do you work or are you still at college?"

"Yes, I have two younger sisters. Do have any other brothers or sisters?"

Conversation

Name _____ Date _____

Now answer the questions

What is my name?

Where do I work every weekend?

What do I like doing in my free time?

.....

.....

Do I have any animals?

Where do I go to College?

What am I learning to be?

Do I have any brothers or sisters?

This resource covers many aspects of E1 ESOL – speaking, listening and reading and can be used in a variety of ways.

Ideas include

- Match the speech bubble on page 8 to the blank bubbles on pages 1-5. (With or without the picture clues on pages 6-7)
- Use the completed dialogue for paired speaking practice.
- Use the pictures separately (p6-7) as general discussion prompts.
- Finish the exercise by asking student to complete page 9.
- As an extension students could make up their own speech for the blank bubbles on page 1-5.

Also suitable for Entry 1 literacy.

To obtain an editable Word version of this resource: upload and share your own resources at www.skillsworkshop.org THANK YOU