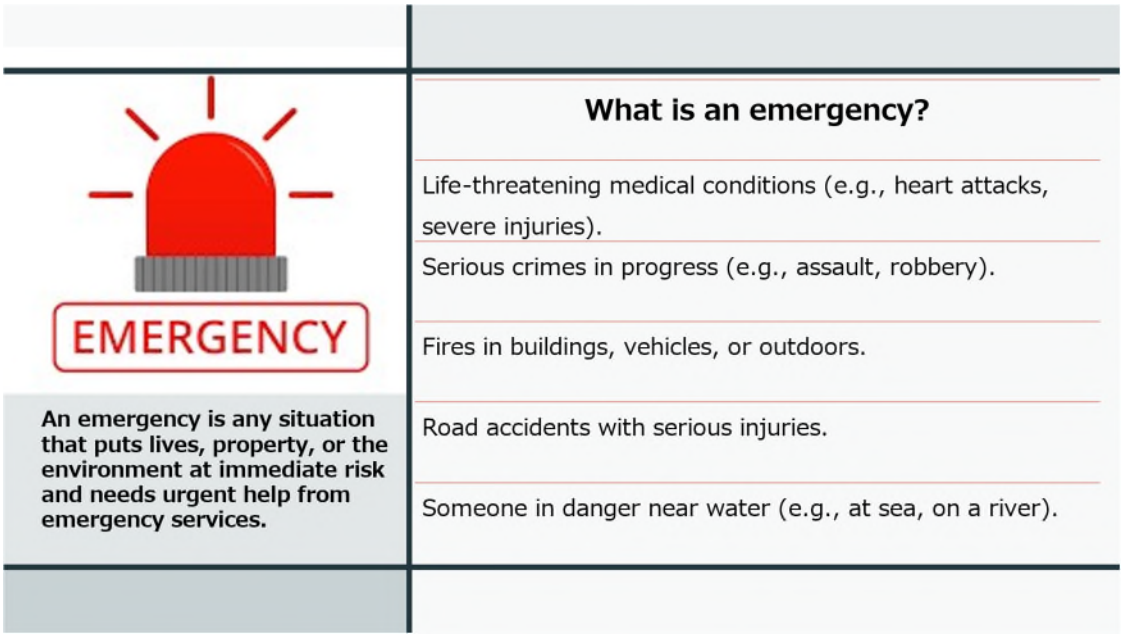
Emergency Services Flash Cards

These cards were designed to accompany the 'Emergency Services in the UK' PPT (Colleen Kelly, Sept 2024) but can be used independently.

https://www.skillsworkshop.org/resources/the_emergency_services_in_the_uk



Slide 3 of the PPT

The scenario cards on pages 6-8 are just suggestions. Make up your own scenarios or ask learners for ideas.

Use the cards as a matching game (individually or in small groups), as discussion prompts, or simply for reading practice.

This is an emergency. Call 999.
This is an emergency. Call 999.
This is an emergency. Call 999.
This is an emergency. Call 999.
This is an emergency. Call 999.
This is an emergency. Call 999.
This is an emergency. Call 999.
This is an emergency. Call 999.

This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.
This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.
This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.
This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.
This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.
This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.
This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.
This is NOT an emergency. Go to a pharmacy or call 111 if you are worried.

Emergency Services Flash Cards

This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 112 or 999.

This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.
This is an emergency. Call 0800 111 or 999.

A person has a pain in the chest
A child has a tummy bug and is being sick with diarrhoea
Someone has been hit by a car and is bleeding and in pain.
A person has fallen off their bike but seems ok.
A baby has a high temperature.
An older person feels unwell and can’t speak or move part of their body.
Someone is struggling in deep water in a lake, river, or in the sea.
A person faints.

A car hits a motor bike rider but they are not hurt.
A car hits a motor bike rider. They are unconscious and look seriously hurt.
Two cars crash in the street. The passengers in one car have leg and face injuries.
You smell gas in your home but everything is turned off.
You are walking down the street and smell gas.
You have a headache.
Your child was sick at school but seems to be ok now.
Your child has some spots that are itchy.

You have an infection and fever that has lasted more than 48 hours.
You are vomiting blood.
There is blood in your pee.
You or a child have a severe pain in your side or other part of your body that won't go away.
You have broken your leg or arm.
You have a cough.
You have a cough, sore throat, headache and fever and are struggling to breath.
You child is having a asthma attack.