

Hani and Layla go shopping

Name _____ Date _____

Use the words from A or B to fill in the gaps.

Personal pronoun (subject)	Possessive adjective
A	B
I	my
you	your he	his
she	her
it	its
we	our
you	your
they	their

Hani and Layla go shopping.

Part 1.

- (1) My name is Hani. Layla and I live next to each other. _____ often go shopping together. Layla is _____ best friend. (2) On Sunday _____ came to visit me and saw a new car outside.
- (3) "Does that car belong to _____?" she asked. "Where is _____ old car?"
- (4) "No," I said, " _____ belongs to David and Fatima next door, it's _____ car. (5) My husband likes it very much. _____ wants to buy one.
- (6) Layla laughed, "Men, _____ see a new toy and they want it. Shall we go to the shops now?"
- (7) So, we went to the shops. _____ needed to buy a blue shirt for my son, Ahmed because blue is _____ favourite colour. (8) Layla wanted to buy a dress for _____ daughter, Sarah.

Hani and Layla go shopping.

Part 2.

(9) After going to many shops, just to look around, we came to John Lewis. I saw a good shirt for Ahmed. _____ colour was just right and _____ was only £4.00.

(10) Layla said to me, “_____ got a good bargain there. It’s really nice. _____ son will love it.”

(11) I looked at a clock. “Layla, look, it is 6 o’clock already. We should go. _____ husbands will think we are lost.”

(12) When we left a shop, a car stopped and I heard my husband’s voice. “Hani, Layla, - _____ both look tired. We have come to drive you home.”

(13) In the car was my husband Musa and Fatima’s husband John. John said, “We thought you would be tired and we came to get you. You see! _____ husbands are so loving.”

(14) Layla said, “Of course, but it is nearly dinner time. I think _____ husbands are also so hungry!”