Read this informal message from Sarah to a friend.

Each person should read a sentence to the class.

Help each other with difficult words.

Hi Sian,

I want to tell you about our new neighbours.

They moved in last week.

They live in the house next to mine.

Their names are Sozan and Naz.

They have two children.

The children are very friendly.

Sozan works at the local supermarket.

Naz works from home.

Every morning, Naz waves to me when I go to work.

They are very nice.

I am going to invite them for a barbecue.

I think we will become good friends.

Speak soon, Sarah.

Speaking and Listening

In summer in the UK, people love to have barbecues. Family and friends get together at home, at the beach or another safe place to enjoy a barbecue together.

- Tell the class about eating together in your country.
- You can think about what you will say for 10 minutes.

Section 2

Read the poster.

Warning!

Barbecues can cause fires.

Follow these rules so we all stay safe and don't harm the countryside.

- Check that barbecues are allowed when you are at the beach or in the countryside, park or other public places.
- Do not put a barbecue straight on the grass. Put something under it.
- Never leave children alone when you have a barbecue.
- Before you leave, make sure the fire is out and the barbecue is cold.
- Do not leave your rubbish and barbecue behind.
- Clean up when you have finished.

Enjoy your barbecue. 😊
