E1-E2 Opinions – reading activity

In pairs, sort the cards into positive and negative opinions.

(accompanies ESOL E1-E2 Adjectives PPT, Katherine Bibby, 2026)

My boss is called Andrea. She is very strict and a bit scary because she wants the business to be successful. However, if you are hardworking, she is kind.	Paul is the caretaker. He is very strong. He is also organised. Paul likes to sing when he is working and he is quite talented.
Bethany is the receptionist. She sends emails and answers the phone. Beth is funny and chatty – she never stops talking! But she can be unkind too.	Alan works in the office. He is always late and his clothes are often dirty. When he is at work, Alan plays games on his phone – he is lazy. Andrea gets angry with him.
Fatima fixes the computers. She is extremely shy and quiet – she never talks to anyone! However, Fatima is very clever and she can fix any problem.	Omar works in the office. He is very kind and he always helps me if I have a problem. Omar also likes cooking and he often brings cakes to work – he is generous.
Simon and Tom are the van drivers. They play loud music and they are very noisy. Sometimes they are rude too.	Sabrina works in the office. She is boring because she is never funny. Also, she is not very helpful if someone has a problem. However, she is creative and bright.