

At the Supermarket (A)

Read the book and answer these questions.

1. True or False?

- a. She picked up a basket.
- b. The baby was in a trolley.
- c. She had forgotten her purse.
- d. The girl paid for some items.

2. Answer these questions.

- a. Where did the girl put the packet of chocolate?
- b. Where was the paper bag?
- c. Where was the wire basket?
- d. How did the writer know the man was the manager?

At the Supermarket (B)

Read the book and answer these questions.

3. Fill in the missing words.

- a. Please _____ a basket.
- b. I thought she looked _____.
- c. I could not see any shop _____.
- d. She looked very _____.
- e. The baby was _____ peacefully.

4. Answer these questions.

- a. How did the girl feel?
- b. Why do you think she took the food?
- c. What would you do if you saw a shop lifter?

At the Supermarket (C)

Find the hidden words.

- a. aaubkfrhbnbaguehghf
- b. vnxbvvehfjbasketnvb
- c. jfhrbdgpoibabyfhfgs
- d. hpurseperftindkfjgn
- e. dskleudhowcjdeskcvx
- f. qieurypshopetitufhf
- g. ucbcarrdecarrotsopq
- h. durpeakeupeasejdieu

bag

purse

carrots

basket

peas

desk

baby

tin

shop

This resource was kindly contributed by Yvonne Cook, Medway Adult Education.

At the Supermarket (by Marjorie Wells) is an adult 'Beginner Reader' book available from <http://www.newleafbooks.org.uk/>
Rt/E1.1 Follow a short narrative on a familiar topic. Rs/E1.1 Read & recognise simple sentence structures. Rt/E2.1 Trace & understand the main events of chronological & instructional texts. Rs/E2.2 Use knowledge of simple sentence structure and word order to help decipher unfamiliar words and predict meaning. Also suitable for underpinning Entry 1 and 2 Functional English.

At the Supermarket (D)

Unjumble these sentences.

Then rewrite them using capital letters and full stops.

1. basket I picked up a
2. old clothes her looked
3. me looked at she
4. see could I not assistants shop any
5. items paid for she the
6. manager could I tell was he the
7. deep perhaps I am a down coward

This resource was kindly contributed by Yvonne Cook, Medway Adult Education.

At the Supermarket (by Marjorie Wells) is an adult 'Beginner Reader' book available from <http://www.newleafbooks.org.uk/>
Rt/E1.1 Follow a short narrative on a familiar topic. Rs/E1.1 Read & recognise simple sentence structures. Rt/E2.1 Trace & understand the main events of chronological & instructional texts. Rs/E2.2 Use knowledge of simple sentence structure and word order to help decipher unfamiliar words and predict meaning. Also suitable for underpinning Entry 1 and 2 Functional English.