Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Jane's Day - Text 1

On school days, Jane wakes up early, around 6:30am. After she gets out of bed, she heads straight to the bathroom to brush her teeth and wash her face. Once she feels refreshed, she goes to the kitchen to prepare her breakfast. Typically, she makes a bowl of oatmeal with fresh fruit and a cup of green tea.

Next, Jane sits down at the dining table to eat her breakfast, check her messages and text her friends. By 7:15am, she finishes her meal and gets dressed for college. Before leaving the house, she double-checks her backpack to ensure she has all her books and assignments.

At 8:00am, Jane arrives at school. Her first class of the day is mathematics, followed by history. During these classes, she takes detailed notes and participates actively in discussions. Afterward, she has a short break when she meets her friends in the school cafe.

Then, Jane attends her science and English classes. These subjects are her favourites because she enjoys conducting experiments and analysing literature. After finishing her morning classes, she has lunch with her friends. They usually talk about their plans for the weekend and share their personal stories and gossip.

In the afternoon, Jane has two more classes: physical education and art. PE helps her stay active and healthy, while art allows her to express her creativity. At 3:30pm, the school day ends, and Jane heads to the library to do some of her homework as there are too many distractions at home. She spends about an hour there before getting the bus.

When she arrives home, she takes a short break to have a snack and relax for a while. Then, she helps her younger brother and sister with their homework.

Jane's family gathers for dinner at 7:00pm. They discuss their day and enjoy a home-cooked meal. After dinner, Jane helps with the dishes and then has some free time. She often spends this time reading a book, watching her favourite TV show on YouTube or chatting again with her friends.

Finally, at around 9.30, Jane starts getting ready for bed, taking a shower, charging her phone, and checking her alarm. By 10:30 she is ready for bed, reflecting on the day and thinking about tomorrow before falling asleep.

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Jane's Day - Text 1

Questions

1. What time does Jane wake up in the morning?

2. What does Jane do after she wakes up?

3. What does Jane usually have for breakfast?

4. What time does Jane arrive at school?

5. What are her first two classes?

6. After her morning classes, where does Jane go?

7. What classes does Jane have in the afternoon?

8. What time does Jane go home?

9. What time do the family have dinner?

10. What does she do after dinner?

11. What does she do before bed?

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Text 2

Jane Shaid
111 This St
That Town
TT 9 TS19

Dear Sammy,

I hope you're well. Things are pretty hectic at the moment in school. We are preparing for our final exams.

School starts early for seniors. I get to school by 8:00am, and that's when the real day begins. I have math and history first thing. There is a lot of work, including some discussion (which I like) to help us understand. Breaks are the best part – I get to catch-up with friends in the cafe and relax for a bit. We talk about class, music and loads of other stuff.

In the afternoon, I have PE and art classes. PE is ok. It helps keep me active, and I love the art class because I like being creative. School finishes at 3:30 so I go to the library to get my homework done. It's nice and quiet there, so I can really focus. I only stay about an hour because I help my brother and sister with their homework at home.

We have family dinner around 7:00 in the evening. It's always nice to catch up and share stories. After dinner, I help with the dishes, then chill out with a book or text my friends. Never enough time to chat!

That's pretty much my day! How about you? What have you been up to lately? Let's catch up soon!

Love Jane xx

Discuss:

1. What type of text is this?
2. How do you know?
3. How are this text and text 1 different?
4. What do you notice about the style of writing?
5. Complete additional questions.

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Text 3

Subject: Re: My Busy Day To: Jane@schooldays.com
Hi Jane, Great to hear from you! Your days sound busy but fun. My routine is a bit different. I wake up at 7:00am and head to college which starts at 9:00. My mornings are busy with different lessons and meetings. Lunchtime is my time to catch up with friends in the refectory. Afternoons are all about working on assignments and practical tasks which keep me on my toes. After college, I go to the gym or go for a run with friends. Evenings are a time for extra study with dinner around 7:30 on college nights but I go to a movie or evening out with friends on a weekend. Your routine is so organised. I'm not quite that good at sorting things out. Quite lazy in fact! We should catch up, maybe a video call this weekend? Talk to you soon, Sammy

What type of text is this?

What is different about Sammy's Day?

What time does Sammy get up?

Does Sammy go to school or somewhere else?

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Jane's Day - Text 4

Simplified text for E3

Jane wakes up at 6:30am in the morning.

She brushes her teeth and washes her face.

She quietly goes to the kitchen to make her breakfast.

She doesn't want to wake up her younger brother and sister.

She makes porridge with fruit and some green tea.

While she has her breakfast, she checks her messages and chats to her friends.

School starts at eight o'clock and she gets the bus at 7:15.

Today, the first lesson is science followed by English, her favourite.

When they have a break, she meets her friends to chat in the café.

Afternoon classes are PE and Art. She likes them both.

She goes to the library after school, at about three, and stays for an hour.

She gets home about 5pm.

Even after a long day she helps her brother and sister with their homework.

Dinner is with the family, at 7pm.

Then she helps with the washing up before relaxing.

She has a shower before bed and charges her phone.

She goes to sleep about 10:30, ready for the next day.

1. What do am and pm mean when talking about time?
2. Where does Jane go after school?
3. Who does she have dinner with?
4. What does she do before bed? Name two things.
5. Name two lessons Jane enjoys.

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Text 5

The paragraphs have been mixed up. Put them in the correct order.

Next, Jane sits down at the dining table to eat her breakfast, check her messages and text her friends. By 7:15am, she finishes her meal and gets dressed for college. Before leaving the house, she double-checks her backpack to ensure she has all her books and assignments.

In the afternoon, Jane has two more classes: physical education and art. PE helps her stay active and healthy, while art allows her to express her creativity. At 3:30pm, the school day ends, and Jane heads to the library to do some of her homework as there are too many distractions at home. She spends about an hour there before getting the bus.

Then, Jane attends her science and English classes. These subjects are her favourites because she enjoys conducting experiments and analysing literature. After finishing her morning classes, she has lunch with her friends. They usually talk about their plans for the weekend and share their personal stories and gossip.

At 8:00am, Jane arrives at school. Her first class of the day is mathematics, followed by history. During these classes, she takes detailed notes and participates actively in discussions. Afterward, she has a short break when she meets her friends in the school cafe.

On school days, Jane wakes up early, around 6:30am. After she gets out of bed, she heads straight to the bathroom to brush her teeth and wash her face. Once she feels refreshed, she goes to the kitchen to prepare her breakfast. Typically, she makes a bowl of oatmeal with fresh fruit and a cup of green tea.

Jane's family gathers for dinner at 7:00pm. They discuss their day and enjoy a home-cooked meal. After dinner, Jane helps with the dishes and then has some free time. She often spends this time reading a book, watching her favourite TV show on YouTube or chatting again with her friends.

When she arrives, she takes a short break to have a snack and relax for a while. Then, she helps her younger brothers and sisters with their homework.

Finally, at around 9.30, Jane starts getting ready for bed, taking a shower, charging her phone and checking her alarm. By 10:30pm, she is ready for bed, reflecting on the day and thinking about tomorrow before falling asleep.

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Jane's Inspiring Journey - Text 6

By Chatterbox

As a year 11 pupil, Jane's day is a whirlwind of study, work and friends. Despite the long day, she faces each moment with determination and courage.

She navigates through a carefully planned routine filled with school, friendships and personal growth, preparing for exams and the world of college and work.

Rising at 6:30 every school day, she prepares for the day ahead. After her morning routine, she fuels up with oatmeal and green tea, preparing herself for the challenges to come.

The School Day

Arriving at school by 8:00 a.m. Jane dives into her classes. Maths and history keep her mind sharp as she takes notes and joins discussions with her classmates. During breaks, she enjoys chatting and laughing with friends in the lively school café. She says it is important to take time to relax and get a quick drink so we can stay alert and ready to take our mocks.

As the day progresses, Jane excels in physical education and art classes. These activities not only keep her active but also nurture her creativity. In the library at 3:30 pm, she diligently completes homework and prepares for upcoming tests. Even after a busy day at school, she helps her younger siblings with their homework.

A busy day!

06:30 get up

08:00 arrive at school

15:30 library work

17:30 help siblings

7:00 dinner and time to relax

10:30 bed

At 7:00 o'clock, Jane has dinner with her family. They swap stories and unwind together. Jane pitches in with chores before relaxing on her phone, chatting or watching something on YouTube.

She hopes to attend a local college after school to study biology because she wants to work in medicine. She's not sure which part of medicine yet but hopes college will help guide her and then she can specialise at university.

Jane's day showcases her resilience and determination, inspiring others with her commitment to learning, personal growth and unselfish attitude. We are sure she will go far and achieve her dreams.

"Planning and preparation are key for me" states Jane. "I don't find it easy, but the nothing worth having is easy"

A fine attitude and great example. All at Chatterbox wish you well.

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

College Application – Text 7

Jane passed her exams and now needs to apply to attend her chosen college course. She needs to complete a form and provide information. Here is an example of the type of form she will need to complete.

Use the information from the other texts about Jane to complete the form.

Don't forget to check you have answered the questions correctly, checked your SPaG and corrected any errors. Below is some additional information for the course section. Choose only those you think Jane will need.

Courses:

Biology Year 1 – course number B1Y1

Chemistry Year 1 - course number CH1Y1

Biology 2 Y1 advanced – course number B2Y1

English A Level – course number EAY1

Mathematics A Level – course number MAY1

Intro to modern medicine – Course number IMMY1

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Bridgetown College Application Form 1
Personal Information: Full Name: Date of Birth: Address: Email Address: Phone Number:
Educational Background: Previous School: Leaving Date: GCSE Results: • Mathematics • Art • Science • English
Hobbies and interests:
Personal Statement: Please provide a brief personal statement about yourself, your goals, and why you want to attend this college.
Which courses are you applying for? Remember to include the course number.
Signature: Date:

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

Questions for E3 Text 4 (see page 5)

Question 1. Put these events in the correct order:

- Jane goes to sleep
- Jane wakes up
- Jane goes to school
- Jane has dinner
- Jane helps with homework
- Jane eats breakfast

Question 2. Circle TRUE or FALSE:

a. Jane wakes up at 6:30 in the morning. T/F

b. Jane eats breakfast at school. T/F

c. Jane's first lesson is science. T/F

d. Jane goes to the library before school. T/F

e. Jane has dinner with her family. T/F

Question 3. Underline the verbs in each sentence:

a. Jane wakes up at 6:30.
b. She gets the bus to school.
c. She helps her brother and sister.
d. She goes to sleep at 10:30
e. She meets her friends at the cafe.
f. She has a shower and charges her phone.

Question 4. Complete the sentences:

Time	What Jane does
First
Then
After Finally

Question 5 This sentence is missing a comma. Rewrite with the comma in the correct place.

He walked to college slowly so he had time to meet his friends.

Jane's Day

Name _____ Date _____

SPaG questions

Question 1. Circle the correct tense.

Jane usually (go / goes) to the library after school.

Question 2. Join the sentences using a suitable conjunction.

Jane goes to the library It is quieter than home

Your new sentence now needs changes to the capital letters. Rewrite it with capital letters in the correct place.

- -

Question 3 Add an apostrophe:

Janes friends meet at the café.

Question 4 Circle the correct homophone:

I hope your / you're well.

Question 5 Correct the sentence.

after dinner i help with the dishes then chill out with a book or texts my friends

Question 6 Circle the correct verb/s:

After dinner I help/helped/helps with the dishes then chills/chill/chilled out with a book or texting/texts/text my friends. (3)

End of questions