Read the following and provide suitable words in the gaps.

Pancake Day, or Shrove Tuesday, is the traditional feast day before the ______ of Lent on Ash Wednesday. Lent is the 40 day period leading up to Easter.

In Britain many years ago, pa	ancakes traditionally made between the ringing of a curfew bell in the morning of	Shrove Tuesday and it ringing again that evening. Cooks that time to use up all t	he eggs and milk as these would not be eaten during Lent.
Until the early 1900s Shrove	Tuesday a half-day holiday and the Shriving Bell was rung at eleven o'clock in the	to remind people that the holiday began. It became known in s	ome parts as the Pancake Bell and it is still rung today even though the day is no longer a	holiday. According to tradition, in 1445 a woman of Olney heard the shriving bell while	she was pancakes and ran to the church in her apron, still clutching her fryin	g pan.
Pancake races held a	Il over England. The object of the race is to get to the finishing line first whilst flippi	ng a pancake in a pan. The Olney pancake race is now world famous. Competito	ors have to be local housewives and they to wear an apron and a hat or scarf. Each	ch contestant has a frying pan containing a hot, cooking pancake. She must toss it thr	ee times during the race that starts at the market square at 11.55 am. The first woman to	complete the winding 375-metre course (the record is 63 seconds set in 1967) and arri	ve at the church, serve her pancake to the bell ringer, and be kissed by him, is the winner.
The world's biggest	was cooked in Rochdale in 1994; it was an amazing 15 metres in diameter,	three tonnes and had an estimated of two million calories.
