

Equal opportunities!

QUIZ

The answers to these questions may surprise you. The answers can be found on www.works4me.org.uk/, some in more obvious places than others!

1. How many young people agreed that in 10 years time more jobs would be equally done by men and women?
a. 10% b. 50% c. 70%
2. How many females feel that the career advice that have received was influence by being male or female?
a. 1 in 4 b. 4 in 10 c. 6 in 10
3. How many boys said they would like to try a non traditional job before making their career choice?
a. 33% b. 45% c. 59%
4. How many girls said they would like to try a non traditional job before making their final career choice?
a. 42% b. 64% c. 76%
5. How many men are working in childcare?
a. 100,000 b. 50,000 c. 10,000

EO Quiz - Answers - Maths!

1. Answer c.

Young people agreed that in 10 years men and women would do 70% of jobs equally.

What is 70% of 200?

2. Answer c.

6 in 10 females felt that the career advice they received was influenced by their gender.

Out of 50 girls, how many would feel that their career advice had been influenced by their gender?

3. Answer c.

59% of boys said they would like to try a non-traditional job before making their final career choice.

If 200 boys were surveyed, how many of them would like to try a non-traditional job?

4. Answer c.

76% of girls said they would like to try a non-traditional job before making their final career choice.

If 150 girls had been surveyed, how many of them would like to try a non-traditional job?

5. Answer c.

10,000 men are working in childcare.

If in next 10 years this number increases by 10%, how many men will be working in childcare?

Maths Answers

1. Young people agreed that in 10 years men and women would do 70% of jobs equally.

What is 70% of 200? 140

2. 6 in 10 females felt that the career advice they received was influenced by their gender.

Out of 50 girls, how many would feel that their career advice had been influenced by their gender? 30

3. 59% of boys said they would like to try a non-traditional job before making their final career choice.

If 200 boys were surveyed, how many of them would like to try a non-traditional job? 118

4. 76% of girls said they would like to try a non-traditional job before making their final career choice.

If 150 girls had been surveyed, how many of them would like to try a non-traditional job? 114

5. 10,000 men are working in childcare.

If in next 10 years this number increases by 10%, how many men will be working in childcare? 11,000