This resource kindly contributed by Marion Crocker, Abingdon and Witney College Marion.Crocker@abingdon-witney.ac.uk, adapted from a resource by Heidi Griffin, Bournemouth Adult Learning. Speaking & listening ice-breaker: learners go around the room, speak to everyone and match people to the statements (by writing names at the beginning of the sentences and completing other information as needed. Also leads nicely into an introduction/revision of sentence structure. Covers many E2-E3 speaking & listening elements (asking and answering questions, giving personal information, making introductions, etc.).
