

Researching a current topic – swine flu

1. Go to Internet Explorer.
2. Key in www.google.com.au www.google.co.uk or www.google.com
3. Key in  in the search box and press the Enter key.

Read the questions below and answer them briefly on this sheet.

4. When and where were the first cases of swine flu reported this year?
5. Had there been swine flu before this year? When and where?
6. What are the symptoms of swine flu?
7. What can you do to avoid swine flu?
8. What products are being bought or sold in relation to this?
9. What precautions can be put in place to avoid swine flu entering different countries?
10. How are the symptoms different to normal flu?
11. Is there a vaccination against swine flu?
12. Where are the fatalities and how many are dead?
13. What is the source of this information? Is it believable?

Now write a paragraph in Word summarising your research.